Matt Crawford concentrates his practice in the retail, hospitality, and commercial real estate sectors, with a particular focus on commercial leasing, representing both landlords and tenants of medium- to large-scale retail (including fitness, as well as health and medical and services), restaurant, office, and other commercial developments.

Matt has a wealth of experience in advising real estate clients on the structuring and negotiation of their various disposition, acquisition, and financing transactions, and seeing those matters through to closing, as well as in analyzing title issues and other potentially problematic due diligence matters.

Outside The Firm

Matt is a proud husband and parent to two amazing toddlers and their rescue dog, Willis. He is a passionate fan of the Mets, Jets, Knicks, and Villanova basketball. In his spare time, he enjoys golf, concerts, comedy shows, softball, kayaking, fishing, and hiking.
