

Olivia S. Ortiz | Associate
Real Estate

444 West Lake Street
Chicago, IL 60606
+1.312.776.2579
olivia.ortiz@blankrome.com

Olivia S. Ortiz concentrates her practice on representing financial institutions and other lenders in syndicated and single-bank real estate and construction financing transactions.

During law school, Olivia served as an executive footnote editor for the Utah Law Review.

Select Engagements

- Represented an administrative agent in financing a $53 million construction loan for the construction of an industrial facility in Martinsburg, West Virginia.
- Represented an administrative agent in financing a $51 million construction loan for the construction of a multi-family project in Glendale, Arizona.
- Represented an administrative agent in connection with a $43 million refinancing loan for an industrial property in Fort Worth, Texas.
- Represented an administrative agent in financing a $35 million acquisition loan for an Amazon facility in Las Vegas, Nevada.
- Represented a lender in financing a $26 million non-revolving, senior secured credit facility for the acquisition and renovation of a hotel in Fort Walton Beach, Florida.
- Represented an administrative agent in $60 million portfolio loan for 13 industrial properties in Chicago, Illinois.
- Represented an administrative agent in financing $41 million construction loan for an industrial project in Tulare, California.
- Represented an administrative agent in financing $42 million construction loan for a multifamily project in Friendswood, Texas.

Admissions

- Illinois

Education

- Arizona State University, BS, summa cum laude
- University of Utah, S.J. Quinney College of Law, JD, high honors

Professional Activities

Olivia serves as a member of the Real Estate Lenders Association.