

Alexandria M. Popovnak | Associate
Litigation

Union Trust Building
Pittsburgh, PA 15219
+1.412.932.2752
apopovnak@blankrome.com

Alexandria Popovnak concentrates her practice on general litigation matters.

Prior to joining Blank Rome, Alexandria served as a law clerk for the Honorable Max Baer of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court after working as an associate for a Pittsburgh-based law firm.

During law school, Alexandria served as a junior staff editor and then symposium coordinator for the Duquesne Law Review, was a member of Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, and worked as a research assistant. She also tutored Torts, Civil Procedure, and Evidence for the Academic Excellence Program.

Additionally, Alexandria previously served as a legal intern for a large corporation in Pittsburgh as well as a judicial intern for the Honorable Terrence F. McVerry of the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania.

Outside The Firm

Alexandria is a cycling instructor at Cyclebar North Hills, an indoor cycling studio. She is a part-time adjunct professor at Duquesne University School of Business, where she teaches Legal Aspects of Human Resources.

Admissions

- Pennsylvania
- U.S. District Court - Western District of Pennsylvania

Memberships

- American Bar Association
- Allegheny County (PA) Bar Association
- Pennsylvania Bar Association

Education

- Duquesne University School of Law, JD, cum laude
- Duquesne University, BS, cum laude

Professional Activities

Alexandria currently serves on the Team Children's Advisory Committee for the Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh. She also participated as a mentee in TOGETHER Leading, a program of the United Way's Women's Leadership Committee.

Alexandria is actively involved in the Allegheny County Bar Association. She is the founder and chair of the Health and Wellness Committee, co-chair of the Communications Committee for the Women in Law Division, and a committee member for the Events Planning Committee. She is also a board member on the American Heart Association Young Professionals Board.