Alina Levi concentrates her practice on a variety of consumer finance litigation matters, including disputes under TILA, RESPA, FCRA, ECOA, FDCPA, state law UDAAP claims, and a variety of common law claims. She also represents lenders and loan servicers in contested foreclosures, quiet title actions, federal forfeiture proceedings, hazard insurance disputes, bankruptcy and adversary proceedings, and appeals.

Alina previously served as an assistant district attorney for the Bronx District Attorney's Office. She has also held numerous legal and judicial internships and externships throughout New York and New Jersey courts and state agencies.

During law school, she was a recipient of the Gold Public Service Award and a member of the Appellate Division of the Moot Court Honor Society. Alina also served as a research assistant to Corporate Governance Professor Reisberg and was editor-in-chief of The Bridge, an International Law Society publication.
