Amit Roitman concentrates her practice on insurance recovery matters. Amit is an associate in Blank Rome's policyholder-only insurance recovery practice group. She represents corporate policyholders and educational institutions in disputes against insurance companies involving a wide range of insurance policies, including commercial general liability, directors and officers liability, professional liability, and employment practices liability.

Amit previously served as a summer associate at Blank Rome and held law clerk and legal assistance roles at numerous law firms. She also served as an intern to the Honorable Richard D. Bennett of the U.S. District Court for the District of Maryland as well as to the Honorable Christopher Panos of the Circuit Court for Baltimore City.

During law school, Amit served as the managing editor of the Maryland Journal of International Law and was a Legal Writing and Analysis Writing Fellow.

Amit is fluent in Hebrew.
