Ashlyn Grim concentrates her practice on a wide range of general litigation matters.

Prior to joining Blank Rome, Ashlyn served as an associate in the Health Care Liability Department of an Am Law 200 law firm. She also previously served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Judith Ference Olson of the Superior Court of Pennsylvania and intern for the Juvenile Department of Allegheny County Public Defender's Office.

During law school, Ashlyn was a member of the Appellate Moot Court Board and Trial Advocacy Team. She competed in multiple competitions, including the ABA National Arbitration Competition, where Ashlyn and her teammates emerged as national finalists. Upon graduation, Ashlyn was inducted into the Justice Louis L. Manderino Honors Society and received the Shalom Moot Court Award, as well as the Pro Bono Honors Certificate.

Outside The Firm

Ashlyn lives in Cranberry Township with her husband. She enjoys spending time with family and friends, running, and hiking.
