

Christopher K. Hu | Of Counsel
Intellectual Property & Technology

1271 Avenue of the Americas
New York, NY 10020
+1.212.885.5180
chu@blankrome.com

photo coming soon

Christopher Hu concentrates his practice in intellectual property litigation. He has more than 35 years of experience representing a broad spectrum of clients in patent and trade secret cases and disputes involving a wide range of technologies, including:

- e-commerce
- computers
- telecommunications devices
- medical products
- chemicals
- pharmaceuticals
- consumer products
- mechanical devices

Christopher speaks frequently at industry events on topics such as the interaction between the Leahy-Smith America Invents Act (“AIA”) and litigation, including patent litigation.

Select Engagements

- Defended Barnes & Noble, against Alcatel-Lucent in litigation over patents asserted against website features and e-reader.
- Defended Barnes & Noble, against Xerox in litigation over patents asserted against website features.
- Defended W.L. Gore & Associates, Inc., against Edwards Life Sciences over patents relating to modular stent-grafts.
- Defended W.L. Gore & Associates, Inc. against Medtronic over patents relating to stent-grafts.

- Defended W.L. Gore & Associates, Inc. against Andersen Windows over a patent relating to low visibility insect screens.
- Defended Sensormatic against Checkpoint over a patent relating to RF anti-theft labels
- Defended Rheem Manufacturing Co. against Freedom Flow over a patent relating to water heater drain valves.
- Represented W.L. Gore & Associates, Inc. in a trade secret litigation in Arizona state court against a departing employee.
- Defended IBM in litigation against TM Patents over patents relating to RAID data storage devices, message routing in parallel processors and DRAM memory controllers.
- Represented Glaxo against SKB in a litigation and related interference over patents relating to anti-nausea drugs.
- Represented DuPont in litigation against BASF and Monsanto over sulfonated nylon co-polymers used in stain-resistant carpets.

Admissions

- New York

Memberships

- American Bar Association
- American Intellectual Property Law Association

Education

- Dartmouth College, AB
- Dartmouth College, BE
- Columbia Law School, JD

Professional Activities

Chris is a member of the Board of Overseers for the Thayer School of Engineering at Dartmouth College.