Chris McNeill focuses on providing top-notch legal services to clients in a broad range of industries, including biotechnology, online gaming and social media, software and software as a service (“SAAS”) solutions, hospitality and entertainment, private equity, manufacturing, retail and distribution, logistics, construction and related services, and automotive sales and services. He works closely with his clients as a true partner and resource, using his experience advising entrepreneurs to help his clients navigate today’s business environment in order to take advantage of opportunities and mitigate risks.

Chris assists clients at all stages of the corporate life cycle, including entity formation, corporate restructuring and expansion, securities financing (including private placements and private equity rounds), traditional commercial debt financing, and mergers and acquisitions. His goal is to get deals done and ensure they are done properly, with an emphasis on providing his clients with the information they need to make informed business decisions.

Outside The Firm

Although Chris’ family roots are from small town Mississippi, during his childhood he traveled the country and the world as an Army brat, including living in Brazil and graduating high school in Nairobi, Kenya. He earned his Eagle Scout while living in Kenya and today is actively involved in the Boy Scouts of America with his sons.

When not working, Chris’ favorite hobbies include all things outdoors such as fishing, kayaking, camping, and hiking.
