David Woodman is the Senior Director of Technology at Blank Rome and part of the technology management team, participating in decisions on strategic direction and in the insertion of new technology. He currently oversees Software Engineering, Training, and Applications Systems.

David came to Blank Rome through the combination with Tenzer Greenblatt LLP in one of the Firm's many mergers and acquisitions, bringing with him experience from multiple other New York law firms. He has served at the director level at Blank Rome for over 15 years, and has 20 years of management experience and over 30 years overall experience in the legal technology industry.

David holds a BFA from the Boston Conservatory of Music and an MSW from Fordham University, and is certified by AMA in Strategic Planning. He is also a member of the International Legal Technology Association and has served on various speaker panels.
