Dylan Mitchell zealously advocates for his clients during what is often the most difficult time in their lives. With compassion, understanding, and extensive experience, he has achieved favorable resolutions for his clients through negotiated settlement and, when necessary, litigation. Dylan's representations have included many high-net-worth and high profile individuals in matrimonial disputes, involving multimillion dollar marital estates in the U.S. and abroad, allegators of child kidnapping, as well as in custody and visitation matters. Dylan has almost 30 years of extensive experience advising clients in all aspects of matrimonial and family law, including:

- Prenuptial agreements
- Postnuptial agreements
- Custody, access, and relocation issues
- Divorce negotiation and litigation
- Equitable distribution, spousal and child support, and related ancillary issues
- Paternity proceedings
- Mediation

Dylan is a Fellow and serves as a Member of the New York Chapter of the Board of Managers of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers.

Dylan is an empathetic and efficient mediator, and helps parents and families in conflict to resolve their disputes without the need for continued litigation.

Dylan has three times been a guest lecturer at Rutgers Law School on the subject of child custody disputes. He has also moderated, lectured and served as a panelist at New York State Bar Association, New York City Bar Association, and American

Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers CLE seminars, including:

- AAML Comparative Family Law Seminar, (February 2025)
