

Edward L. Lublin | Senior Counsel
Corporate

1825 Eye Street NW
Washington, D.C. 20006
+1.202.772.5933
lublin@blankrome.com

Edward Lublin serves clients across the nation in all areas of corporate and securities law. He represents a wide range of banks, thrifts, and other businesses in the following areas:

- financing options, including private placements, recapitalizations, and IPOs
- recovery of assets
- evaluation of claims against the government
- representation before regulatory bodies, including the U.S. Federal Reserve, SEC, FDIC, OCC, OTS, and others
- real estate workouts and problem loan transactions
- tax planning and gifting strategies
- succession planning
- sale of business, and mergers and acquisitions

Edward has served on the staffs of the SEC, the U.S. Department of Energy, and the Overseas Private Investment Corporation.

He has received the highest possible rating from Martindale-Hubbell.

Select Engagements

- Case against the United States government for an internationally operating investment bank.
- Bank chartering and purchase of bank for nation's only fully unionized provider of insurance, financial services, and administrative products.
- Private placement, public offering, and bank regulatory issues for a mortgage and retail banking service company.

- Case against the United States government representing a federal bank.

Admissions

- California
- District of Columbia
- Maryland
- New York
- U.S. District Court - California

Memberships

- American Bar Association
- Housing Unlimited
- Jobs Unlimited
- Maryland Bar Association
- TCA Trust Corp. America

Education

- University of Michigan, BBA
- University of Michigan Law School, JD
- University of Michigan, MBA

Professional Activities

Edward is the president and director of the Finance Committee for Housing Unlimited, Inc., which provides housing for people with disabilities. He is also counsel to Jobs Unlimited, Inc., which provides job training for people with disabilities.