Fiona Steele concentrates her practice on a wide range of general litigation matters.

Fiona has notable experience representing clients in complex litigation matters and investigations in federal courts, state courts, and administrative proceedings.

Prior to joining the firm, Fiona served as a litigation associate at a Philadelphia-based law firm. She previously served as a federal law clerk to the Honorable Judge Edward G. Smith and a judicial extern to the Honorable Judge Joel H. Slomsky, both of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. She also worked as a legal extern at the Eastern District of Pennsylvania United States Attorney's Office and the Office of Disciplinary Counsel of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

During law school, Fiona served as an articles editor for the Villanova Law Review.

Fiona maintains a diverse pro bono practice and is an active volunteer with Philadelphia VIP.
