

Jill R. Mindlin | Of Counsel
Finance

1271 Avenue of the Americas
New York, NY 10020
+1.212.885.5157
jmindlin@blankrome.com

Jill Mindlin focuses her practice on secured transactions. She structures, negotiates, and documents asset-based lending transactions as well as merger and acquisition financing, debtor-in-possession facilities, and loan syndications.

Jill has represented sellers, issuers, purchasers, and underwriters in structured finance transactions with a focus on opinion practice. She has also represented servicers in connection with securitized mortgages. Her clients include major money center banks, commercial finance companies, asset-based lenders, and hedge funds.

Outside The Firm

Jill is an avid golfer and singer. She is also actively engaged in food allergy advocacy work around the country.

Admissions

- New York
- U.S. District Court - Eastern District of New York
- U.S. District Court - Southern District of New York

Memberships

- Association of Commercial Finance Attorneys
- Commercial Finance Association
- New York Institute of Credit

- Turnaround Management Association

Education

- Brooklyn Law School, JD
- University of Pennsylvania, BA

Professional Activities

Jill is a member of various commercial finance associations, and also serves on TMA NOW, the Turnaround Management Association's Network of Women committee.