Josef (Joe) Mintz is an experienced and versatile business bankruptcy and restructuring attorney. Licensed in Delaware, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania, he represents a diverse range of parties including creditors, debtors, trustees, lessors, and asset purchasers in matters including:

- Chapter 7 and 11 cases
- Bankruptcy alternatives including assignments for the benefit of creditors (“ABCs”), liquidations, winddowns, and UCC (Article 9) foreclosures
- Bankruptcy litigation including preference and fraudulent transfer claims
- Chapter 15 and related international insolvency matters
- Restructuring and out-of-court workouts
- Asset sales
- Commercial financing and secured transactions

Chambers USA has ranked Joe in the field of bankruptcy and restructuring law for over 10 years. Chambers noted he is “bright, focused and thoughtful in his approach.” Sources have given particular praise for his “responsiveness and understanding of the overall picture, even when dealing with very complex matters.”

While in law school, Joe was the production editor for the Rutgers Law Journal. He served as a judicial extern to the Honorable Jean K. FitzSimon, U.S. Bankruptcy Judge of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania and as an intern to the Honorable John J. Hughes, U.S. Magistrate Judge of the District of New Jersey.

Prior to attending law school, Joe held positions as an antitrust legal assistant and an electronic discovery specialist for a large, international law firm.

Outside The Firm

Joe lives in West Philadelphia with his wife and two children. He is a lifelong Phillies fan and enjoys live music, running, and biking.
