Matt Crawford concentrates his practice on commercial leasing, representing both landlords and tenants of medium to large-scale retail, restaurant, office, and other commercial developments.

Matt has a wealth of experience in advising real estate clients on the structuring and negotiation of their various disposition, acquisition, and financing transactions, and seeing those matters through to closing, as well as in analyzing title issues and other potentially problematic due diligence matters.

Outside The Firm

Matt is a proud husband and parent to one daughter (with a son on the way) and their rescue dog. He is a passionate sports fan. In his spare time, he enjoys golf, concerts, softball, kayaking, fishing, and hiking.
