Michael Schaedle concentrates his practice on bankruptcy, reorganizations and workouts, debt and equity restructuring, and commercial and public debt transactions, including:

- secured creditors
- creditors' and other committees and creditor groups
- creditors, contract counter-parties
- asset purchasers / plan-of-reorganization proponents
- trustees, debtors, foreign representatives, and other fiduciaries

Mike is ranked by Chambers USA as a leading bankruptcy lawyer. Chambers sources praised his “very effective approach” to matters and also noted that he “has an excellent reputation for Chapter 11 cases.” Clients say he is “tenacious, thorough and highly strategic” and “a main factor in our choosing this firm.” Clients further appreciate “his ability to use his understanding of the bankruptcy code to formulate an excellent plan” and call him “an intellectual heavyweight.”

Mike is a Fellow in the American College of Bankruptcy, a member of the International Insolvency Institute, and has been certified as a Business Bankruptcy Specialist by the American Board of Certification.
