

BLANKROME

Natalie M. Radabaugh | Associate
Maritime

1825 Eye Street NW
Washington, D.C. 20006
+1.202.420.2704

natalie.radabaugh@blankrome.com
<https://www.linkedin.com/in/natalie-radabaugh-44b953135/>

Natalie Radabaugh concentrates her practice on maritime transactions, corporate governance, and ship financing matters.

Natalie has experience in maritime transactions under U.S. and foreign laws, such as:

- Vessel secured financings
- Vessel lease financings
- Ship purchases and sales
- Vessel charters
- Maritime bankruptcies and restructurings
- Corporate governance and structure issues for domestic and foreign companies

Natalie previously held roles as a trial team extern for the U.S. Navy, Judge Advocate General's Corps; law intern for the Department of Homeland Security, Transportation Security Administration, Office of Chief Counsel; and legal assistant and evictions department team lead for a default litigation law firm.

During law school, Natalie served as a senior managing editor of the International Law in Domestic Courts Journal and was a member of the National Security Law Association.

Admissions

- District of Columbia
- Maryland

Education

- George Washington University Law School, JD, with honors
- Ohio State University, BA, magna cum laude

Recognitions

- 2021–2023, listed in The Legal 500 United States
- 2022–2023, Rising Star: Transport: Shipping - Finance, listed in The Legal 500 United States
- 2022, "Rising Star" in Shipping & Maritime, listed in International Tax Review's Rising Star Awards 2022
- 2022, listed in Capital Pro Bono Honor Roll