Nicole Wentworth is a litigation associate in the firm's Los Angeles office. She concentrates her practice on labor and employment and commercial litigation matters.

Nicole represents and advises employers on a variety of labor and employment matters. Her litigation experience ranges from single plaintiff claims to complex class actions, with an emphasis on discrimination, retaliation, harassment, and wage and hour claims. Nicole also handles a variety of commercial real estate disputes, representing property owners, landlords, and tenants in various litigation matters.

Nicole previously served as a summer associate at Blank Rome, as well as a legal secretary and legal assistant for a Los Angeles-based law firm.

During law school, Nicole served as the Chief Note and Comment Editor of the Loyola of Los Angeles Law Review and was actively involved in numerous programs, including the Ninth Circuit Appellate Clinic, Young Lawyers Program, and Student Animal Legal Defense Fund.

Outside The Firm

Nicole enjoys photography, traveling, hiking, and true crime podcasts. She is also an avid Los Angeles Chargers fan and plays the guitar and ukulele.
