Oliver Katz concentrates his practice on a wide range of general litigation matters.

Prior to joining Blank Rome, Oliver was assistant corporation counsel for the Labor and Employment Law Division of the New York City Law Department. In this role, Oliver handled a high-volume case load in both state and federal court focused on wrongful termination and employment discrimination claims under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and the New York State and New York City Human Rights Law.

During law school, Oliver served as a judicial intern for the Honorable Thomas L. Ambro of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit as well as the Honorable Mark A. Kearney of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Outside The Firm

In his free time, Oliver enjoys watching football and going to comedy clubs.
