Philip Rosenfeldt maintains a national practice counseling clients in all facets of real estate transactions. Philip brings more than 35 years of experience representing clients in ground up development; sales and acquisitions; financing; leasing; and entity structuring and restructuring for many types of projects including:

- retail development
- office and industrial buildings
- residential and mixed use projects

Philip is recognized by Chambers USA as a leader in real estate law. Chambers sources praised his ability to “stay focused on the important parts of the deal and achieve closure quickly,” and also noted his “strategic, intelligent, and practical approach” as well as his “impressive performance in a significant number of development matters.” Clients appreciate “the depth of his knowledge of local law and commerce; he gives business advice that goes beyond just analyzing the legal terms.”
