Sara K. Osinski concentrates her practice on trusts and estates law and various tax matters.

Sara has notable experience drafting estate planning and estate administration documents, conducting legal research on estate administration litigation matters, and assisting in preparing formal trust and estate tax documents to be filed with the Surrogate's Court.

Prior to joining the firm, Sara interned as an associate in a family office, where she assisted with counseling for ultra-high net worth individuals and families.

Outside The Firm

Sara enjoys planting, caring for fruit trees, and exploring urban landscapes for graffiti and street art.
