

Simon I. Bord | Associate
Corporate

1825 Eye Street NW
Washington, D.C. 20006
+1.202.420.2618
sbord@blankrome.com

Simon Bord concentrates his practice on corporate and securities law, counseling private and public companies through all stages of their growth. Simon regularly handles a wide range of transactional and corporate agreements, prepares securities filings with the SEC and state securities regulators, and conducts due diligence in connection with mergers and acquisitions. In addition, Simon represents angel investors seeking to make seed-stage financing investments in emerging growth companies.

During law school, Simon served as judicial extern to the Honorable Lois H. Goodman of the District of New Jersey as well as a legal intern for the Bucks County Public Defender's Office. He was also an associate of the Legal Information Institute Supreme Court Bulletin and acquisitions editor of the Cornell Journal of Law and Public Policy.

Admissions

- Pennsylvania
- New Jersey
- District of Columbia

Memberships

- Pennsylvania Bar Association

Education

- Pennsylvania State University, BA, with distinction
- Pennsylvania State University, BS, with distinction
- Cornell Law School, JD