Thomas Biron is a fellow of the American College of Bankruptcy. Since its inception, Chambers USA has ranked Thomas as a leading individual in bankruptcy law, and has praised him for his “innovative approach,” noting that clients appreciate his “good judgement” and “very strategic” nature. Clients have also described him as an “excellent, standout lawyer” and “one of the most highly respected practitioners around” and praised him as “a top choice for sophisticated matters.” Sources note his “masterful way of sizing up a situation and proposing solutions” and that his “exceptional skills in complex restructuring and bankruptcy litigation have earned him a high profile in the state and beyond.” He has received the highest possible rating from Martindale-Hubbell, and has been listed in The Best Lawyers in America® since 1991 for Bankruptcy and Creditor Debtor Rights/Insolvency and Reorganization Law and Litigation.

Thomas’ broad range of experience includes:

- Investigations and related litigation
- Debt and equity restructurings and inter-class negotiations
- Loan syndication, participation and restructuring
- Lender liability prevention and defense
- Real estate and public debt transactions
- Leveraged mergers and acquisitions
- Mass toxic tort problems and successor liability issues
- Structured finance and asset securitization transactions
- Alternative dispute and conflict resolution

Thomas frequently lectures and writes on issues involving corporate reorganization and restructuring, and is a past subcommittee and task force chair in the Business

Bankruptcy Committee of the ABA's Business Law Section. He is a past chair of the Third Circuit Education Committee of the American College of Bankruptcy, and currently serves on the Third Circuit Admissions Council.

Select Engagements

- Lehman Brothers Holding Inc. as counsel to a financial instrument counterparty, litigating and settling through a mediation dispute over termination rights and valuation.
- Trans World Airlines ("TWA") as counsel to the creditors' committee in TWA's sale to American Airlines in the context of a confirmed Chapter 11 plan.
- LeNature's, Inc. as lead counsel to equipment finance provider in facility liquidation and in offensive and defensive litigation arising out of fraudulent enterprise's bankruptcy.
