

Timothy J. Miller | Associate

Litigation

One Logan Square
Philadelphia, PA 19103
+1.215.569.5654
timothy.miller@blankrome.com

Timothy (“Timmy”) J. Miller concentrates their practice on a wide range of general litigation matters.

Timmy previously served as a summer associate at Blank Rome. Prior to joining Blank Rome, Timmy served as a judicial intern for the Honorable Richard A. Lloret at the Federal District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, a legal intern at GlaxoSmithKline, Inc., as well as the assistant executive director at JURIST Legal News and Research, Inc.

During law school, Timmy competed on the National Trial Team and was a teaching assistant for legal writing and intellectual property courses. Timmy also served as a chair for the Faculty Search Committee and held positions as treasurer and parliamentarian for the Student Bar Association. At their graduation, Timmy was chosen by the faculty to receive the Captain Robert Miller Knox Award as the graduating student who had made the most outstanding contributions to the law school community.

Outside The Firm

Timmy enjoys reading great books, playing the violin, and traveling the world. They live with their partner, Dan, and their two cats, Gus and Toby, who they rescued with a Blank Rome co-worker while they were a summer associate.

Admissions

- Pennsylvania
- U.S. District Court - Eastern District of Pennsylvania

Memberships

- Philadelphia Bar Association
- International Trademark Association

Education

- University of Pittsburgh, BA, summa cum laude
- Temple University Beasley School of Law, JD, cum laude

Professional Activities

Timmy is involved with a variety of pro bono activities, including aiding clients with asylum applications, pardons petitions, and name-changes. Timmy also helps current law students develop and refine their trial advocacy skills by serving as an adjunct faculty coach for the Temple Law National Trial Team.